PUBLIC COMMENTS

Bob Loar, of Washington, addressed the Board regarding the County Office Building not being handicapped accessible. He noted his concerns with ADA compliance.

Harry Sabatase, of Burgettstown, again asked the Board when action would be taken to stop the elected officials' pay raises. He also suggested having board meetings take place at various locations throughout the county.

John Adams, of Avella, stated the current politicians who are on the ballot this election should be aware that taxpayers are ready for a change.

Coroner Tim Warco and Mayor Ken Westcott expressed their concerns with the recent shootings, drug problems and crime that exist in certain areas of the City of Washington. They stated there is a strong need for more funding for the Drug Task Force to deal with this situation.

District Attorney Pettit echoed Mayor Westcott and Coroner Warco's comments regarding the importance of finding a way to receive more funding for the drug task force. Mr. Pettit explained his dilemma and noted drug activity and crime are an everyday present problem in many areas of the county. Mr. Pettit noted that due to a change handed down by the state, the county is saving approximately $90,000 (of his salary) that could be used in the district attorney's budget for this cause. He pointed out he is in the process of restructuring the task force and will need more funds to accomplish this to reach out and establish a multi-jurisdiction force within the county to battle drug and crime activity.

Sylvia Shaw, of the Canonsburg Senior Center, mentioned the Board of Commissioners are doing a great job and everything they do for the senior center programs is appreciated. She also asked the Board to assist with the fight against crime and drug activity in Washington County.
