Adaptive Sports is a non-profit corporation created to provide organized sports for those individuals who are physically or mentally challenged. We make every attempt to provide both facility changes and rule changes so each player can participate in a chosen sport. Adaptive Sports is not limited to any particular sport, but the organization and adaptation of any sport must be approved by the Board of Directors first. Safety of the players and the volunteers will be taken into consideration first. Adaptive Sports' non-profit status permits it to solicit funds to provide sporting activities at a nominal cost to the participants. The organization uses these funds to acquire facilities, equipment, uniforms, and professional assistance when required. Our partial-year Adaptive Sports registration fee is $20 per athlete, which includes activities through June 30, including indoor and outdoor soccer, tennis, football, dances, and admission to the annual banquet. Registered athletes also receive a reduced price for spring bowling. One form for each athlete, please.

4-6 Year Camp Themes:

1. Welcome to the Scare B&B (June 10-14)

Vampirina wants you and your friends to come join her at the “Scare B&B”. Chef Remy has cooked up an amazing week of fun, food, and games. Join the Scream girls to learn, how to play rhythms in the band, and some awesome dance moves. You will take home a glowing ghost jar, a mummy, and a bat. Helping Remy make bread bones will be so much fun. We will also learn how kindness can have a ripple effect. Vampirina can't wait to have a dance party, do a mummy wrap, and "Go Batty" with you.

2. Curious George Goes Camping (June 17-21)

George has planned a camping trip and would like you to come along. We will learn how to put up a tent, find lost animals, and go on a hike in the woods. Our "Scavenger Hunt" will help us find things to put in our nature suncatchers. We will also learn about colors in nature and how animals use camouflage to protect themselves. Wear your PJ's on Thursday and hang out in the tent telling stories. Don't forget to take home your colorful butterfly and camping frame.

3. Let's Be Incredible (June 24-28)

The Incredibles are coming to camp to show you how to be your "Incredible" self. Elastic girl needs your help with a sticky situation. Jack-Jack needs some help finding his mask, and cooling himself down. Are you ready for the "Incredible" training course? Don't let Frozone catch you in Freeze tag. Take home your favorite character, and an "Incredible" Popsicle holder. You will learn the secret to Elastic girl's super stretchy slime. It's your turn to be "Incredible."

4. How to Train Your Dragon (July 8-12)

"While other places have ponies, or parrots... we have... dragons! " Get your shields ready to follow the brave counselors to find and train your very own dragon. First we have flying lessons, and then we will feed the dragons. For protection we will learn how to use a catapult and make "Erupting" dragon eggs. Let's try your skills at putting out dragon fires and playing "Dragon Lair" tag. Somehow the dragons eggs are lost so you will have to help find them. If you are successful you will have your very own dragon to take home. We will end our amazing week with an erupting volcano.

5. Mermaids & Pirates (July 15-19)

Captain Hook's and his pirates are back to to take over Mermaid Lagoon. It looks like we will have to compete with Captain Hooks men in a ship race, sword fight, and "Sink the Ship" game. Hopefully no one will have to walk the plank. With the pirates defeated it will be time to hunt for the pirate treasure. Mermaids and glittery fish will be our guides as we "Dive Under the Sea". Don't forget to take home a treasure chest and a telescope. We will all look a lot more like pirates or mermaids by the end of the week.

6. The Enchanted Forest (July 22-26)

Join the gnomes and fairies in an Enchanted Forest. Try your luck at the "Wishing Well" coin toss or gnome ring toss. Learn how to set up a fairy garden that will attract mysterious creatures. You can start with a fairy door for your own yard, then add a few items that make the fairies feel right at home. Beware of the wicked queen who will try to put you to sleep. Please take a minute and help the unicorn with his horn? You will take home a glitter rock, and gnome disguise. Who can spot the “Roaming” gnome hiding somewhere around the “Y”? The gnomes will be happy to share their tricks to gardening with you.

7. Welcome to Bikini Bottom (July 29-Aug 2)

Join Spongebob and his friend Patrick to foil the plans Plankton has to get the Krabby Patty recipe. Mr Krab wants to see how quickly you can put together a Krabby Patty in our “Krabby Patty” race. Take home your own Plankton and Patrick. We can soak Plankton and dive into the money pit. What will you find in the money pit? How are you at pineapple bowling? Patrick will be hanging around to help us build a Pineapple house. Let’s dive right in and grab a jellyfish or two.

7-12 Year Camp Themes:

1. Avengers Return (June 10-14)

Your favorite superheroes return and they need your help this week to defeat a number of evil villains. You will have to show your super skills by being as “Fast as the Wind” and use your Captain America shield to block deadly bombs. Your perception will be tested when you use “X-ray Vision”, and solve special Avenger puzzles. How about a “Hammer Throw” like Thor or some “Hulk Smashing”? Don’t forget to take home some “Hulk Slime”? An awesome t-shirt will show why you are the ultimate super hero.

2. Clue Murder Mystery (June 17-21)

The most renowned sleuths of all time are gathering at the “Y” to solve a most difficult mystery. Our Counselors have gotten themselves mixed up in a murder. First you will have to “Collect the Evidence”, and identify a few body parts. You can keep all your notes in a specially designed notebook. Bravery and skill will be needed to “Protect the Crime Scene”. Putting together a skeleton may be a little tricky. I am sure throwing hearts around will get messy. If you solve the mystery you will be rewarded with a lovely framed picture of you in your undercover disguise.

3. Salute to America (June 24-28)

Fourth of July is just around the corner. Let’s salute our beautiful country with a little trip around the USA. How about a little “Glacier Carry”, water challenge, or “Army” dodgeball. Of course we will pay tribute to our service men and women. A red, white, and blue airplane, Flag T-shirt, and an awesome duct tape craft are ours to take home for the holiday. You will be launching a homemade “Bottle Rocket", (perfectly safe). Let's celebrate our country with a mini Patriot Carnival on Friday.

4. Wizarding Wonders (July 8-12)

In the same way Harry Potter had to find his way to Hogwart's, so will we. First we will be sorted by the sorting Hat and a little test. A special wand must be created to continue our lessons. We'll make a book of spells, and create our own potions. How did this slime recipe get in the book? Make sure you don't forget your pet. There is a mystery afoot, but all we have to do is follow the clues. If all else fails we will just have to learn more magic to get the job done. How about a little Quidditch to pass the time? Come Join us for some "Wizarding Wonders".

5. Jumanji Jungle Adventure (July 15-19)

"Jumanji" the game has just come to camp. Put on your jungle gear, and let's see if you are up for the challenge. How will you survive the "Safari Scramble" or "Survival" eating contest? Maybe you are better at rounding up wild animals, or getting something out of quicksand. Our science experience will be helpful to create rain. We can use our rain sticksto control the rain this week. A comfy lion pillow and binoculars will come in handy. A stepping stone with things you have collected from your journey with help you remember the fun week.

6. Surf's Up (July 22-26)

Getting wet is our specialty at camp this week. Whether it is in a water relay, "Jellyfish" toss, or water musical chairs, you will get wet. Let's hang out at the beach, make a sand Jar, and have a blanket relay. How many people will fit on your raft? Making a water balloon catcher can get a little tricky, and lots of fun. How fast can your team wring out a towel? Maybe you will enjoy a bit of jello for a snack. Those counselors have gone totally wild and crazy please join them on Friday in your new shark T-shirt. Aloha!

7. Double Dare Is Back (July 29-Aug 2)

Oh gross! Are the words to describe this week at camp. Let's test your skills by making you do some crazy messy games. Will you try "Pie in the Pants" or "Marshmallow spitting"? If you like to eat maybe you will do better at the "Cream Pie" or "Mystery food" challenges? I'm sure there will be a little time to create with fusebeads and make a treasure box. Show your team spirit with your own Tie-Dye bandannas? There will be plenty of surprises in store for your counselors too in their own Double Dare competitions planned by you, the campers. Be ready to get slimmed, wet, and messy. Don't worry we will clean you up before you go!

Summer Art Camps

We have high hopes for the summer of 2019. Our goal this summer is to create outstanding art-focused camps for school-aged children (6-18), taught by talented, experienced teachers, supported by qualified, engaged assistants, and managed by an efficient, collaborative administrative team, all at our Shadyside campus. Many camps combine artistic practices across mediums, allowing students to blend traditional forms with 21st-century techniques. With over 100 camps to choose from each year, PF/PCA's summer art camp program continues to grow and serve the region's ever-changing needs.

Through the generous support of our members and the community, PF/PCA provides financial aid, ensuring that every young artist can participate and create. Art Camps allow children and teens to explore a wide variety of mediums, often in an interdisciplinary setting. Campers work alongside talented teaching artists to learn new skills, develop their interests, collaborate with peers and create their own work. Each camp is offered to a specific age range and is tailored to the developmental needs of that group. Our high school programs are intensive project-based programs designed specifically for high school students. Highly trained and experienced teaching artists provide students with a college-like atmosphere to explore a variety of mediums. High school programs utilize both PCA's fine arts studios and media labs, and Pittsburgh Filmmakers' professional filmmaking and photography facilities.
